✓ May the first 1716. There was a child brought to the church, wh^{ch} had been left at widow Brennan's house in Edenderry. Concerning wh^{ch} it could not be known whether who were the parents, nor whether it had been baptized, and therefore Mr. Campbell proceeded according to the Rubric, saying, If thou art not baptized, Elizabeth, baptize thee &c. George Hodger Churchwarden was Godfather, Margaret Coevel the nurse, and Catherine Deale were godmothers.
