

1891 - 92

(36) 3

Tuesday, Dec. 29, 1891. The body of Mrs. Emma Elizabeth Scavin (aged 86 years) widow of the late Venble Archdeacon James Scavin, formerly Rector of Seago, was interred to-day in the vault under the Chancel. The tiling was lifted for this purpose, and the coffin was laid upon that of Archdeacon Scavin (interred in 1879). The coffin was borne into the Church, and to the vault by members of the Select Vestry. The following Clergy officiated: - Rev. A. D. Dawson, A.M. Rector, Rev. Robt. Quirk Curate; Rev. Aug. Fitzgerald D.D., Rector of Portadown; and Rev. Lewis Richards D.D. Rector of Dunglass (Dungannon). This was the last interment in the vault which was bricked up, and closed for ever.

1892

Friday, Jan. 5, 1892. The Rev. A. Dawson, Rector of Seago, was on this day appointed to the Archdeaconry of Down, in succession to late Archdeacon Francis King D.D. (Incumbent of St. Patrick's, Newry), by Bp. Wm. Reeves D.D. Bp. of Down & former Down, who died on 12th January following.

Bp. Reeves thus restored to the Rectory of Seago the dignity of the Archdeaconry