

A meeting of Select Vestry was held on 8 January 1904 when the following were present -
The Very Rev^d The Dean of Down - in the Chair -
Rev^ds W. J. Grey & Edward Jennings, Mess^{rs} J. Albin J. G. Gracey, Joseph Bourne, George Calvert, and W. A. Atkinson.

The meeting was for the purpose of receiving Sustentation Fund Collectors books & collections. - £93: 5: 0 was paid in.

The Dean having explained that a Commission would shortly meet to consider certain repairs at the Rectory. It was proposed by James Albin Esq Calvert & seconded by Jas Albin & passed, that Wilson Irwin represent Select Vestry at the enquiry.

It having been reported that the caretaker of Parochial Hall, Edenderry was not giving satisfaction, it was proposed by Jas Albin & seconded by W. J. Grey that he be informed his services would not be required after end of the quarter and that Mr J. Curry be appointed at same Salary (£1 p quarter) subject to his being willing to undertake all the duties required, as to keeping the Hall in proper order and the grounds neat & tidy at all times.

There was some conversation as to the condition of Levaghery Schoolhouse and the Dean undertook to see W. H. A. G. Sloan with a view to learning whether he could have some repairs or made.

It was arranged to have next meeting of Select Vestry on Friday 5 February next.

A sketch of a proposed New Porch at Transept door at an approximate cost of £150 was received from Mr R^d Lutton. It was decided to leave over consideration of the matter for a larger Vestry.
