RECTOR'S LETTER.

My Dear Parishioners,

In this issue of our Parish Magazine we print a detailed statement of the result of the appeal sent out by the Select Vestry, asking you for a thank-offering for peace, as well as for the blessings of harvest, on Sunday, Oct. 16th. Behind that very moderately worded appeal lay the very gloomy situation, viz., that unless £100 could be found now, the parochial balance sheet would show an adverse balance running into three figures on December 31st, when our accounts close for the current year. On Sunday morning, Oct. 9th, I deemed it my duty to draw your attention to the circumstances which prompted your Vestry's appeal, and I then expressed my belief, that if you realised the need, you would not allow such a state of affairs to exist. The result has more than justified my confidence in you. I thank Almighty God for your response to that appeal, it shows that Church people still value their Church, its ministrations and services and what it stands for in this changing, perplexing world. In 1870 when the Church of Ireland was dis-established and dis-endowed, the outlook was very black, its enemies and pessimists prophesied its destruction. But what happened? Her enemies were disappointed, the pessimists were wrong. Why? The laity of their Church saw the need for their help, they realised their responsibility, they acted promptly, with self-sacrificing devotion in making provision for the maintenance of their Church's services and what then seemed disaster has proved to be a blessing. That spirit of self-sacrificing devotion for Christ's Church in this land so evident in 1870, is still with us. No Churchman worthy of the name will ever stand by and see the Church's work suffer or curtailed through lack of financial support. John Wesley was indeed expressing the mind of Christ our Master, when he said:—"the work of God will never stand still for want of money so long as He has the hearts of all men in His hands." It is most gratifying to see the names of so many of our young people in the thank-offering list, and I know that very many of you, young and old, have made a real sacrifice, for this let us all thank God.

You have responded generously to this appeal to enable your Vestry to balance their accounts for 1938. But what of the future? The appeal was a dual one—

(1) for an immediate response on Oct. 16th, (2) for a greater and wider support by you for the Weekly Free-will Offering system of this parish in 1939. With the strictest economy it takes £600 per year to maintain the Church services, etc. For the past two years to meet this the Vestry has received from W.F.O. and Church collections £450 per year. This means that another £3 per week must be found. This should not be a hardship in a parish such as ours which boasts of thousands of Church-people. The idea behind the Weekly Free Will Offering system is that it enables each wage-earner to contribute weekly an amount which at the end of the year amounts to a sum which could not be given annually or even quarterly. On behalf of your Select Vestry, I appeal to every wage-earner in this great parish prayerfully to consider for 1939, whether you could not increase your weekly contributions by at least 3d per week. Let our standard be not what others give, not how little can I give but how much can I give. If this is done our 1939 report, when printed, will not show, as previous ones have shown scores of meagre contributions, which are, to put it plainly, an insult to Almighty God. When each parishioner does his or her bit, just as you have done it with reference to the Harvest Thank-offerings, in a self-sacrificing spirit, realising the seriousness of the issues at stake, I believe your Vestry will be relieved of the impossible and intolerable position in which they have been placed during the past few years.

Again, I am confident that you as individuals will rise to the occasion, when you weigh the matter, as I have tried to put it to you. If you are satisfied that in God's sight you are doing all you can for His Kingdom in this place, encourage others to take their responsibility seriously. Pray earnestly that neither here nor anywhere in the world God's work may be hindered by lack of support from the people, who profess to be His servants. Pray, too, that you and all His people may be enabled to witness for Him in daily life,—and let us not forget that one of the most effectual ways of witnessing for Him is by regularly attending His House on Sundays, to ascribe Him the worship and honour due to His Holy Name.

Your sincere Pastor and Friend,

JOHN W. APPELBE.
