EVENING PRAYER.

Now that the Church has been "blacked out," and in view that there is reason to believe that the old hour is more suitable for those attending the Evening Service, on and after Sunday Evening, November 5th, Evening Prayer will be held at 7 p.m.

DIOCESAN SYNOD.

The annual Diocesan Synod for the United Dioceses of Down and Connor and Dromore will take place on Tuesday, November 7th, in Belfast.

At this important meeting the Parish of Seagoe will be represented by the clergy, together with Messrs. John H. Twinem, Jas. Twinem, S. McCormick and Thos. Martin.

THE MOTHERS' UNION.

The usual monthly meeting took place in Seagoe School on Thursday, October 12th, at 3.30 p.m. There was a good attendance of members. The Rector gave a short address, after which arrangements were made to form a work-party to make comforts for our soldiers. It was agreed to have an extra meeting each month devoted to this work only. The next ordinary monthly meeting will take place in Seagoe School on Thursday, November 9th, at 3.30 p.m.

ARMISTICE.

The annual Armistice-tide Service will take place in Seagoe Parish Church on Sunday, November 12th, at 11.30 a.m. The collection will be in aid of the Earl Haig Poppy Day Fund for disabled soldiers and their dependants. It is hoped that there will be a parade of ex-Servicemen at this Service.

HARVEST SERVICES.

The unusually fine harvest weather ensured that there was a profusion of flowers, etc., to decorate our halls and Church for these Services. To the following, who so kindly preacher for us, we are deeply indebted:—At Hacknahay, Rev. A. N. Parkinson; at Bocombra, the Rev. H. A. Lillie; at Levaghery, the Revs. Geo. Long and S. J. Warner; at Carne, the Rev. G. A. Boulger; at Drumgor, the Revs. G. Mann and T. H. Frizelle; at Edenderry, the Revs. W. W. Nash, and R. Barnes. In the Parish Church the Revs. T. Parr, R. H. White and Canon Taylor were the preachers. It was encouraging to see such fine attendances at all these services and also at the Children's Service on Sunday afternoon.

The full choir, under Mrs. Casey, led the singing and were deservedly complimented by Canon Taylor on their performance, in spite of the fact that owing to the "black-out" it was possible only to hold two practices.

To all those who sent material for decoration, and, who helped in arranging it our best thanks are due.

PRESENTATION.

Mrs. W. H. Best has been the recipient of two presentations from parochial organisations on the occasion of her recent marriage. On Sunday, October 22nd, she received a fireside chair from the teachers and pupils of Seagoe afternoon Sunday School; and at a social evening organised by members of the choir in the Parochial Hall, she received a clock as a token of their esteem and good wishes. Mrs. Best has rendered loyal service both as a Sunday School teacher and choir member, and we are glad to know that she will continue to help in these spheres. We wish both Mr. and Mrs. Best much happiness and prosperity in their married life.

SIDESMEN FOR NOVEMBER.
