The Excursion.

Thursday, June 16th, was a red-letter day in he history of Seagoe. Looking back on many unday School Excursions in past years we canot recall any which proved more successful han that of this year. Several things comined to make this year's excursion specially sucessful. The weather was the finest possible, "Seagoe weather" at its best. The sun shone II day from

A Cloudless Sky.

he fact that we were going to a new destination so helped towards the success of the excursion. t was our first visit to Bangor. A very large umber of teachers and children assembled at he Parish Church at 8.15. After a short serice the procession was formed. We had three Bands-Carbet, Ballyhannon and the C.L.B. We never had three bands at any previous excursion. The long procession as it moved towards the station provided a most impressive ight. The special train left at 9.20 and carried Is right through t, Bangor. The country as we passed along looked splendid. We reached Banor at 10.40 and then the procession re-formed and marched with bands playing round by the shore to the Dufferin Parochial Hall. Here everything was ready for the first refreshment, and as the excursionists passed into the Hall they got pastry and

A Ham Sandwich.

When the meal was over all adjourned to the ea front. There was a refreshing wind from the ea. The great warship "Hood" was anchored a the bay and presented an impressive sight. The children rad a splendid time on the sands ligging, paddling, and bathing. At four o'clock many of the excursionists went by boat out to be "Hood" and they got on board the second refreshment was put off to six o'clock to as to give sime to see the ship. The bracing in had sharpened the appetites of all and the ea, buns and sandwiches disappeared with great rapidity. In fact after the second refreshment only three sandwiches were left out of 1,700. The return train left Bangor at 8.15 and after a quick run we got back to Portadown at 9.40. A great crowd a veited us in Railway Street and Bridge St. The procession, with bands, reformed and marched back to the Church, headed by Mr. Scott. cu: Churchwarden, who carried aloft the Union Jack. In the morning Willie Preston, of Lylo, headed the procession with the Union Jack. At the Church cheers were given for the King. The Rector thanked the bands and then all separated, having thoroughly enjoved a delightful day. There were 853 on the excursion. The long special train was crowded.

The Huge Ship.

Anniversary Service.

On Sunday c. ning, July 10th, an Anniversary Service will be held in Seagoe Church at 7 p.m. The preacher will be the Rev. H. E. Hardy, M.A., Rector of Killyman. The collection will be on behalf of the Lord Enniskillen Orphan Fund. Places will be reserved for the Lodges attending the Service.

The Battle of the Somme.

Special Commemoration Services were held in the Parish Thurch at Morning and Evening Prayer on Sunday, June 26th. At Morning Prayer before the sermon the Rector read out the names of those who from this Parish made the great sacrifice. The Seagoe company of the C.L.B. were resent at the Morning Service. After the Service the congregation assembled at the Memorial (tates of the Church and placed a wreath in memory of the fallen.

Mothers at Seagoe.

The Seagoe Methers' Union had a splendid day's outing on Thursday, June 23rd, at Milltown Rectory in the kind invitation of the Rev. J. F. G. and Mrs. Magill. The excursionists numbered over 70 and filled two 'buses. A:companied by the Rev. W. F. Hayes, they left the Parochial Hall at 3.15. On arrival at Milltown they joined up with the Milltown mothers and drove to the Lake shore at Maghery. They then drove back to the Rectory and had a splandid tea, after which they enjoyed themselves in various ways urtil about 8.30, when they toox the 'buses again and had a fine drive back to Edenderry. Mr. and Mrs. Magill were most kind and hospitable and the Seagoe Mothers will long remember their pleasant day at Milltown Re :tory.

The Roll-Call.

Death has been busy in our midst last month and has taken from among us some who were well known in our midst. Mrs. Jane Graham passed away on June 18th after a long illness. She was known to many in the Parish and before going to reside in Hull had lived for many years in Railway St. When old age came upon her she returned from Hull to spend her last days in the street she leved. Mrs. Kane tended her with loving care through a long illness. We express our sympathy with her daughter, Miss Minnie Graham, of Paterson, New Jersey, U.S.A., who showed her mother the greatest kindness and attention to the last. The interment took place at Old Tullylish graveyard. The Rector officiated in the Church and at the graveside. William James Thompson, of Drumgor, died at an advanced age on June 28th and was interred at Agnalee. Mrs. Mary Jane M'Ateer had only been a short time in the Parish and resided in Foundry St. We express our deep sympathy with all the bereaved relatives who have lost their dear friends.

A Kind Letter.

We have received the following kind and thoughtful letter from Mrs. Freeburn (formerly Miss Lizzie Stewart), of South Manchester, U.S.A. We wish to express our sincere thanks to our kind friends in South Manchester who responded so generously to Mrs. Freeburn's appeal. We are hoping that the sum sent by Mrs. Freeburn will form the beginning of a much larger Fund in Seagoe Parish to relieve distress whenever it occurs. If any of our readers would care to supplement Mrs. Freeburn's gift of £2 4s it would help towards the most desirable object. Here is Mrs. Freeburn's letter:—

Rev. Chancellor Archer.

Sir,—In a recent issue of the Seagoe Magazae I happened to read with regret of the families in very poor circumstances. I went around a few Portadown people. I showed them the Magazine to read, but as you are aware, the money is not just as plentiful here as we would like to have it. Rut we always meet people who are willing to help anyone in such need, so enclosed find £2 4s, and see that the children do not have to go to school without their breakfast... Hoping things will soon change for the better everywhere. Wishing Seagoe Parish every success.—Very sincerely yours.

LIZZIE FREEBURN. I expect a card from you, if you please, to show to those who kindly give.

A Rare Visitor.

Seagoe has this year been honoured by tw visits from a somewhat rare visitor. visitor's name is Motocilla Flava, but our read ers might easier recognise it under the name the Yellow Wagtail. The grey wagtail is, course, a frequent visitor, but the yellow was tail seems to have a special affection for Seago and its neighbourhood. Foster, in his standar work on "Irish Birds," says that the yeller wagtail is a comparatively rare visitor to Irelan and when it comes selects the southern end Lough Neagh as its nesting place. It is a min rant arriving in May and leaving in Augus This year it built its nest and brought up young brood at Seagoe Church and in the Re tory garden. Its nest contains five eggs of pretty sky-blue cclour.

Memories of Seagoe.

In our issue of last month the note a "Twenty-five years ago" contained a referent to presentations of a gold watch and a silve Communion set presented to the Rev. J. (no Canon) Taylor when he was leaving the Curaof Seagoe 25 years ago. We sent a copy of the Magazine to Canon Taylor, and he has replied in the following teaching lines:—

Cathedral Rectory, Lisburn.

Your kindly thought is clearly seen In sending me the Magazine, Recalling days of long ago When many hearts did overflow In precious gifts, on kindness bent When parting came and ties were rent. The watch my constant friend has been In every clime, through every scene; It still keeps perfect time, and oft Has served to lift my mind aloft When golden hours sped swiftly on And fleeting years, now past and gone. The children's gift, so dear to me, Is useful still when souls agree Around the Saviour's board to meet In hallowed joy, Communion sweet; Thus Seagoe's kindly gifts so fine Recall the days of Auld Lang Syne.

Death of Ellen Atkinson,

We regret to record the death on June 30th. t Lurgan Infirmary of Ellen Atkinson, daughter f our former sexton, Dynes Atkinson. She assed away after a short illness. During the hast few years she had been most closely issoiated with all the social entertainments in Reagoe School. No tea party was complete withut Ellen. She was so kindly and willing to elp and so quiet in her manner and enjoyed verything so much that the School will seem mite different without her. She had acted as aretaker of Seagoe School for very many years nd always did her work quietly and well. Her meral took place in the Church burial ground n Friday, July 1st, at 3 p.m.

Buried Townlands.

Some years ago we printed each month in the lagazine "Buried Townlands." Some one or ther of the names of the 29 townlands in the arish was buried in a sentence, and the puzzle as to discover it. Here are a few more "Buried ownlands" from Seagoe Parish on which our eders can exercise their ingenuity:—

1. Do you admire the looking-glass on our matel-piece?

². He has a levely low-pitched voice.

 I like an outside-car better than any other.
There are some bright stars on the mizon.

The correct answers will be given in next ^{nonth}'s Magazine.

The Pageant.

On Saturday, June 11th, a 'bus-ful of parishmers had a delightful drive via Dromore, Ballymanneh and Downpatrick to Audley Castle, on the shores of Strangford Lough in Lord Banby's Demesne. We left the Parochial Hall at 2 and arrived at Strangford Lough at 2. There was an enormous concourse of 'buses, cars, and People. After a refreshing cup of tea in one of the tents we walked through the fields to the slopes of the hill where Audley's Castle stands. The Pageant commemorating the landing of St. Patrick at that exact spot 1500 years before was about to be commemorated. Everybody was delighted as scene followed scene, illustrating the history of the past. The Pageant lasted until 7. On the return journey we visited Downpatrick Cathedral, where St. Patrick is buried. The Rector's Hymn was sung during the Pageant.

Twenty-Five Years Ago.

JULY, 1907.

A Confirmation is announced to be held by the Bishop in Seagoe Church on Saturday, July 6th, at 12 noon. The Confirmation was held but not by Bishop Welland but by Dr. d'Arcy, our present Primate, then Bishop of Clogher. A great Bazaar and Fete had been held in the Recreation Grounds, Portadown, on Thursday, June 6th. The Ballyworkan Band headed the procession through the town. Mr. Moffett took some fine photos. In the tug-of-war the Carne boys, who had been trained by Mr. David Murray, beat all comers. Over 500 paid for admission to the sports. This most successful Sale and Sports was organised by Mr. W. R. Atkinson. Eleven Baptisms, one Marriage and 3 Burials are recorded. A Bible Class excursion to Dublin is announced for August 24th, at 4/return, including admission to the Exhibition then being held.

ITEMS

Tom Webb, formerly of Railway Street, sends the Rector a finely illustrated and most interesting Town Book commemorating the 250th Anniversary of the City of Charleston, South Carolina, U.S.A. He has been spending six weeks in Savannah, Georgia, and is now for six weeks enjoying the beauties of Charleston, which was founded in A.D. 1670.

Jim Porter, formerly of Kernan, sends a very fine description and picture of the new Bridge at Sydney, the biggest in the world. Jim is at present in Melbourne.

Miss Ruby Matchett, of Ballyhannon, a member of Seagoe Select Vestry, left for New Zealand on June 29th. She sails via the Panama Canal. This is Miss Matchett's second journey to New Zealand, where her sister resides.

An important Church of Ireland Conference will be held in the Mansion House, Dublin, from October 11th to October 14th, of this year. We would suggest that some of our Seagoe Parishioners should attend this Conference. Application for hospitality, etc., should be made to Mr. R. M. Wolfe, 43 Kildare St., Dublin.

Edward Vennard has greatly improved the surroundings of the Parochial Hall by planting
